Wausau Courtyard Nominated by Marriot for Americas Hotel of the Year Fairfield Inn & Suites Ranks in Top 5% of Brand Network for Guest Satisfaction

June 25, 2013 (Wausau, Wis.) – Ghidorzi Companies today announced that its Wausau Courtyard has been nominated by Marriott for the Hotel of the Year Award, an elite group of hotels hand-chosen by Marriott to represent the single best property in the entire brand network of 900. Operational excellence, extraordinary guest satisfaction and commitment to community are factors in the hotel's stand-out performance.

“The Hotel of the Year honor is a team win for every area of our diversified business, from the daily commitment of the on-property staff to the creative vision and craftsmanship our design build construction team put into the building to the partnership of our property management and maintenance engineers on its impeccable appearance and performance,” said Chris Ghidorzi. “Factor in the leadership of Dan Burg as General Manager and the support of our corporate office, and it is truly empowering to see what a team can accomplish when everyone is pushing the ball in the same direction.”

The Hotel of the Year Award was ultimately presented to the Courtyard in Portland, Ore., while our Wausau property captured the Diamond Circle Award, representing the top 2% of the Courtyard brand in guest satisfaction and occupancy-driven profitability. The Wausau Courtyard also captured the #2 spot in all of the Americas for “Arrival Experience” and “Friendliness of Breakfast Service.”

Our Fairfield Inn & Suites achieved the Platinum Circle Award for ranking in the top 5% of all 700 brand properties in guest satisfaction. “Travelers in the Wausau area have the luxury of choosing between two best-of-the-best Marriott properties, a distinction that is seldom found even in the largest of markets,” added Ghidorzi.
